Robbers Arrested. SALT LAKE, NOV. 11.

A party of Mormons captured two men who are supposed to have committed the Central Pacific Railroad robbery. After bringing the prisoners in they went out again after the others and brought in two again after the obsers and brought in the more men to-day. While the robbers were being pursued they threw away both their anddle-bags which have since been found and contain a large amount of greenbacks and bags of gold dust and some jewelry, which will convict them also of the Boise, Idaho, stage robbery of August 6th.
